11. Events and Initiatives

College level scholarship was not in practice. But about 65 % student received MP govt scholarship & 17% students got central Govt Scholarship.

Job oriented Projects were given to final year students according to thier interest like Vermicompost, Horticulture because the area is mainly rural and agriculture based.

12. Institutional Development plan

Indicator*	Baseline Value	Target for [current year]	Value as on 30 th September [current year]
-	-	-	-

Role of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in academic audit and initiating quality assurance strategies and processes

In past year IQAC team is rich in sense of three senior faculty. They guide students very well. Now they have been transferred. Now 01 Professor and 03 Assistant Professor provide the quality to their student. As they have their teaching & other works in numerous committee. Guest faculties are Nine in number they are energetic of college.

13. Placement Report –

Job fair organized by Govt. College Raisen which is the lead college of that region. 10 students were participating but could not get jobs. About 10 students are getting jobs in private schools of the town.

14. Innovations and Best Practices

Students betterment with two different category that is rural & deprived and intelligent ones, That area is specially enriched with OBC category. The students are poorer. The students are engaged in their parental business agriculture college provide necessary guidance. We promote to prepare for different examination as well as be an entrepreneur. Environmental awareness is dream of college.

15. SWOC Analysis (strength , weaknesses, Opportunity and Challenges

Teaching large number of student of rural area is our strength. But weakness is limited man power in terms of regular teachers, technical staff for laboratory & class fourth staff and lack of laboratory management staff. Teaching suffers due to less teachers and infrastructure. With limited resources, teaching 1300 students is a challenge.

Our opportunity is in the form of diverse types of social students, large number of females studying in college.

16. Looking Ahead
