SWOC Analysis of the College

STRENGTH:

- The co-ed college in this region imparting quality higher learning since its inception in 1987.
- Providing comparatively low cost of education in Self Financing Courses due to low economic background of the tribal students.
- College runs 01 subject of PG level including SFC.
- Continuous evaluation of students by CCE, helping them to assess themselves.
- College has elaborate system of Feed Back received from the students on curriculum and teaching.
- College organizes different Campaign for awareness both in rural and urban areas through NSS.
- College provides a variety of Scholarships for financially downtrodden students both men and women.

WEAKNESS:

- College needs more infrastructural facility like Building, Classrooms, Laboratories etc. as the Gross Enrolment Ratio is far increasing.
- Poor execution of student centric activities due to very low financial status of the students.
- College needs more post of faculties to be sanctioned and deployed as several new courses have been started.
- Interdisciplinary teaching and research are to be developed.
- College administration should have more academic freedom to meet out the requirement of the students.
- Recruitment of faculties against vacant posts is to be done utmost.

OPPORTUNITY:

- Extension of interdisciplinary teaching.
- Providing Job opportunity to aspiring students through Vivekananda Career and Counselling Cell.
