Part I

- 1. The Principal's Report (2 pages)- Highlights the key activities, events, and successes of the past year and briefly describes major new initiatives to be undertaken over the next year.

Government Degree College Narwar, Shivpuri, affiliated to Jiwaji University, Gwalior was started in 2013 to cater the educational need of the rural surrounding of Narwar block, a historical place related to the famous mythological characters of King Nal and Queen Damayanti as mentioned in 'Mahabharat' . The area is famous for its natural and rich resources- such as abundance of water, full of flora and fauna and fertile land with variety of crops. Though it has many institutions at secondary level including Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya at nearby place, it was lacking in higher educational institution. Keeping in mind the importance of higher education among students, on popular demand, the honourable Chief Minister of Madhya Pradesh Shri Shivraj Singh Chauhan accepted and made declaration in 2012 and in next year 2013 the College came into existence. The admission process started in 2014 and in the very first year 51 students took admission. The number of seats is limited to 80 and it offers only undergraduate course in Arts stream. The College was granted 4 hectares of land near Mohini Sagar dam and a grant of Rs. 133 Lakhs was released by the Govt. of M.P. for its building two years ago. The building of the college is under construction and is to be completed very soon as its 80 % work is complete.

The college has made a good beginning and the number of admission aspirants subsequently grew larger reaching up to three hundred for its eighty seats. It has aspired to fill the coveted academic need of poor and backward classes as almost 90% students of the college are from weaker sections and most of them are girls. The college has borrowed its motto from famous Upanishad 'Asato Ma Sadagamaya' to keep away from dark to light and accordingly the college aims to impart quality education and ensures that each students should give his/her best to the world.
